Work Experience and Internship

- Marketing Analyst, The Indian Economist (ongoing):

I am currently doing a digital internship with the firm. My responsibilities include understanding the marketing requirements of the company, coming up with innovative solutions to drive the business forward and a few elements of brand evangelism.

- Summer Intern – Markets, Ernst & Young LLP, Hyderabad (April-May 2017):
I worked as an intern in the Markets Research and Development team. I worked on developing an Existing Client Database and a Potential Client Database for the city of Hyderabad. I also assisted the Vice President of the company in presentation of the company's financial products at the NASSCOM GIC Conference held during the period of my internship.
- Client Manager and Quality Control Team, Centre for Academic and Professional Support (CAPS), Christ University (2017-present):
As a part of the CM and QC team of the Centre for Academic and Professional support, I handle student and teacher clients, including external stakeholders who approach the centre for workshops and projects that enable the academic and professional support process.
- Operations Team Member, Centre for Academic Professional Support, Christ University (2017-present):
As a part of this team, my main responsibilities are ensuring the smooth functioning of the centre in terms of stocks, finances, resource mobilisation, human resource development and overall functioning.
- Peer Trainer, Centre for Academic and Professional Support (CAPS), Christ University (2016-17) :
I have conducted numerous workshops on APA Style Writing, Linguistics and References, Professional Communication Skills, Research Manuscript Writing etc. for UG and PG students throughout different deaneries and departments. I have also assisted in the development of modules for the same.
- Volunteer at Guardians of Dreams, Bangalore (2015-present):
I have a core team member of the non-profit and have been actively engaged in the incubation of the Guardians Bangalore chapter. I have also designed and organized recruitments, training modules and executed large scale fundraising events.
- Volunteer at Prajjwala and Rural Development Foundation (2010-15):
I have conducted numerous workshops for students in leadership and soft skills.
- Chief Editor, Milestones Magazine, Silver Oaks School (2012-15):
I have been an integral part and head of the Editorial team and collated the magazine under a strict and tight schedule for three continuous years in my school alongside my academic schedules.
